ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

Gladstone and Parnell Elected to the Commons.

Progress of Gladstone's Flight to Belfast of Ireland.

Nothing Decisive Yet Appears to the Test of Strength.

Parnell Addresses a Monster Meeting in a London District.

English Elections.

LONDON, July 9.—Gladstone has been re-elected for Merton, 10 p. m. on this afternoon 22 Tories, 9 Unionists, 12 Liberals and 5 Parnellites had been elected.

Parne and Maurice Parnell, Parnellites, have been re-elected to represent Cork city in the commons. They were not opposed.

The most desperate electoral struggle between Gladstonites and Unionists ended to-day by the utter rout of the latter in the parliamentary district known as West burg. West burg was returned to the last but named as a regular Liberal by a majority of 3500 in a poll of 8400 votes. He opposed the former but was nevertheless considered invincible in his district, and was nominated in the present canvas as a Unionist to continue his opposition to the premier's Irish policy. Jacks' hostility to Gladstone angered thousands of Scotchmen of both, but they looked upon their opposition to him as hopeless, and were unable to obtain a candidate to oppose him at those mentioned for the seat having declined to run. The Tories in order to emphasize the Unionist opposition to the premier withheld opposition and left the election, acts so bold as to go back to the house with a largely increased majority. At the last hour however by the liberal managers nominated Gladstone himself as their candidate, the premier consenting. This equipped the Gladstonites with their work. This was so soon effective that backs became scarce, and to-day with drew leaving the Scotch membership to Gladstone, who was elected without opposition. This will his Lancashire district gives the premier two seats in Scotland. He will perhaps choose to sit for it after and select a reliable man to contest West burg with an assurance of success.

At four o'clock this afternoon 11 conservatives, 10 Unionists, 15 Gladstonites and 7 Parnellites have been elected.

LONDON, July 10.—When the second reading of the home rule bill was defeated in parliament it was promised that one thousand dollars would be sent as campaign expenses for each Irish member voting for it. The following cable was sent from here to-day to Parnell.

Five thousand pounds more transmitted to our trustees by the League in America, making more than £1000 in engagements.

CHARLES O'REILLY, Treasurer.

This makes seventeen thousand pounds or eighty-five thousand dollars sent by O'Reilly within a week, or a thousand dollars for each Irish member who voted with Parnell for the second reading.

Gladstone to the Welsh.

LONDON, July 10.—Gladstone has issued a manifesto to the Welsh electors in which he says this is not the time for the tenth time the electors have raised the cry of alarm and predicted ruin of the empire.

Gladstone has been re-elected as to owe to Thomas O'Connor: "A slate water your banner at Liverpool with great interest. I hope the Liberals will vote to a man for supporting the important and absorbing policy of the government."

Chamberlain writes, "I do not believe the Tories are prepared to coercion, I believe you are willing to go much further in the direction of a real government for Ireland than I do."

At 9 p. m. 51 conservatives, 17 Gladstonites, 10 Unionists and 5 Parnellites had been returned.

LONDON, July 10.—It turns up to 1 a. m. now the election of 82 Tories, 30 Gladstonites, 13 Unionists and 9 Parnellites.

A Correspondent's Review.

London, July 9.—Edward A. Perry, of the Liberal cause, from London this evening as follows: The election at last yesterday, where two unions, one Liberal and one Conservative were returned, offers a striking example of the party with which the Conservatives are carrying out their policies of support to the Liberal cause. At the last election at Bath, which in 1859 had seen Liberalism with ruling majorities, turned half way round and elected Mr. Baine, Conservative, and Mr. Wadsworth, Liberal, rejecting the respective ticket partners, Mr. Lawrence and Sir Arthur Mayer. Mr. Wadsworth took an active part in the Lancing on issue against some rule and the Conservative leaders were to leave him a clear course for election. Fortunately they did not succeed. Mr. Lawrence did not succeed, have another chance to run. There was a position to try their good faith, two aspirants of the party with strong claims to a couple of candidates, one as an old member, the other as a promisee, and every likelihood that both would be elected, for the first vote in Bath a considerable and the Liberal party was greatly scattered, but the Conservative party was possessed of the necessary influence to make room for Mr. Lawrence, thus preventing the Liberal party from getting a Liberal into one of the seats. So both will be represented in the new parliament, by Mr. Wadsworth as the follower of Lord Hartington and by Mr. Lawrence on the conservative side.

At Birmingham, Sir Edward Law, a bitter enemy of Gladstone's African policy, is elected in the seat of the transferred first vote, indeed it has scarcely supported the prime minister. Now, what has been done? you may ask, there are no come ups on that score, but unfortunately except in a few cases it has been overborne by the cross wave of Liberal conversions and abstention. Thus at Bolton, where the nationalists are 85 electors, two Conservatives, Col. Bridgeman and Mr. Stephen Cross, were elected. At Bristol in fact, on re-electing Sir Michael, he has beaten the west division the Tories won the south division from the Gladstonites, Col. ... who had been defeated last year by a majority of 98, now returning the compliment with a majority of 1024. But the greatest surprise of this character came in Sanfordin, where, in face of an Irish vote running up to 2,000, the conservatives, as reported yesterday, made a clean sweep, re-electing their old members and ousting two Gladstonites in the other division.

Foreman of the Round-up—Peter Dennis.

THE ASSOCIATION.

Among the association is yet in its infancy, it has already a good-sized membership and has accomplished some good work. It has as its object the protection of its members and the cattle interests of the Sixth District. Cattle are gathered economically. Moving herds are inspected thoroughly and the quarantine laws vigorously enforced. A stamping reward of $200 is offered for the detection, prosecution and conviction of cattle thieves. The membership fees of the association are only $2.50 per year, which amount enables the members to do the work on that the association is to do. Brand book is a good issue, which is of inestimable value to cattle owners. Those desiring to become members should sign their names to the secretary at Colorado Springs. The officers are all volunteers and will do all in their power to further the interests of the association and its members.

We learn that Fletcher, Primrose and West are coming west and may come up to-day by the Colorado circuit. This is a great treat to being one of the best minstrel organizations on the road.

The preliminary examination of George Tay and Charles Gardner, which was to have been held yesterday morning, was continued until Friday next. Judge W. T. Lewis, then, by Mr. Clark to prosecute the case.

John J. Orman was in the city yesterday for a short time consulting with the military officials. He tells us that he is progressing very nicely with his contact on the Mexican between Leadville and Aspen. Twenty-seven miles have already been graded.

We call the attention of our readers to the proclamation issued by Mayor Dow restricting the use of irrigation water to four hours per day, namely, from 6 to 8 o'clock in the morning and from 5 to 7 o'clock in the evening. This regulation applies on to-day and to-morrow.

The See and excursion party will leave Cheyenne and Ogallala on July 20th in charge of Mr. J. C. Butler. About a week will be spent in the vicinity after which the party will go westward via the Rio Grande, stopping two days in Salt Lake City and reaching San Francisco prior to the opening of the Grand Army encampment.

Little White Green has been to see his brothers' shows, the towns pleased him immensely. He was completely carried away with the burlesque and clown elephant show, and when he saw Johnny Burns and his company he would have rolled off the seats in his grandpa had not held him tight. When he got home he met his father with congratulations. "Pa, grandpa says that once on a time a king and his son kept their towns to make fun for them, and called it 'the fool's. Why can't we keep fools, too, pa?" "Because, my chit, we send them a 'to come' guess."

Mr. Baird experienced rather an exciting runaway last evening about six o'clock. He was driving down Main street when his team became frightened at the bears that were being exhibited on the street. He left the new county court house corner of Main and Custer streets to reach, where the team made an attempt to run, throwing him out. The team about the same time turned into the street just back of the old National hotel and stopped.
